Where Moments Become Memories

Gardens and Country Houses

Wander through Cornwall's historic estates and timeless gardens, where centuries of heritage bloom every season. From exotic valley gardens to majestic manor houses, each visit reveals stunning landscapes and living history, carefully preserved for your discovery.

National Trust Cotehele

An atmospheric Tudor house with Medieval roots, home to the Edgcumbe family for over 600 years. Inside the house is a warren of tapestry-clad rooms which have changed little since Tudor times. Once outside, explore the expansive estate, visit Cotehele Mill in the Morden Valley, and wander around glorious gardens flowering throughout the different seasons.
